

M.D. Bucey

New Concord KY | 901-634-5022 | MDbucey@gmail.com | Kyle-Oakley
(KCEY)

5 + years experience in many capacities of the Entertainment Industry including fundraising, social media, digital marketing, and contract negotiation and 15 years experience as an Unmanned Aircraft pilot

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Righteous Flight (New Concord, KY)

August 2016~ Present

Righteousflight.com

Flight Director, President, Founder and CEO

- Currently Writing flight manual for the Company Flight Operations to Insure all flights are conducted above Rule 107 Standards.
- Consults with Clients on their filming needs for the deployment of drones to insure a safe flight including creating what Righteous Flight calls an Artificially Remote Environment
- Develops equipment and procedures to insure safe drone operations regardless of the perceived difficulty.
- Maintains the Company website blog that promotes projects he is hired for called “The Flight Deck” along with the Righteous Flight Social Media Feeds
- Adapted the concept of “Tiny Houses/Offices” so that while currently based out of Calloway County Kentucky’s Kyle Oakley Field (KCEY) we move operations to the location needed often within a few weeks of the flights to handle insuring safety personal are in position and the location is sufficiently closed for the operation days before any flights begin.

Cary Phillip Bucey Estate (New Concord, KY)

April 2014 ~ Present

Freelance; Economic and Business transition advisor

- Currently evaluates and manages major concerns for the estate as it transitions from holdings for Mr. Bucey to caring for Mr. Bucey’s widow.
- Negotiated with creditors on recurring bills and medical bills that where no longer needed increasing cash flow 10% through making the household budget more efficient.
- Planned and helped re-plan family events for up to 75 people, sometimes more, such as fish fries and major life events.
- Evaluated house hold Equipment and electronics and upgraded what had passed its depreciation value to lengthen the time period between maintenance and replacement lowering maintenance cost and improving functionality.

Walt Disney Land (Anaheim, CA)

January 2010 ~ August 2010

- Disney College program, Transportation and Parking
- • Provided a safe Environment for Guest coming to and leaving the park to park their car and get into the Disneyland Park.
- • Assisted guest as the initial point of contact in the various events happening in the park that day and how to plan their day accordingly.
- • Was known for increasing the fun Guest had on a regular bases by helping their children begin the fun at the earliest possible moment and continue that through the last possible moment.

US Army Recruiting Command (Dallas, Tx)

January 2001 ~ May 2001

Corporal: Rank E-4 Recruiter

- Qualified potential US Army personnel for enlistment.
- Negotiated at least one contract a month with a minimum value of $2,000,000
- Promoted the US Army using social media and traditional marketing skills 24/7.
- Assisted High School Teachers in lessons on citizen ship and patriotism as well as the value of education through presentations on the over 5,000 career fields in the Army and how it could help continue that education

. US Army Signal Corps (US and Over seas)

January 1999 ~ January 2001

Private E-2 to Specialist E-4 Senior Switch Operator • Fort Lewis Washington

- Coordinated my Switch team and assigned subordinate switch teams in support of I-Corps main command operations
 - As a junior Non Commissioned officer trained and cross-trained team members in task needed on signal sights.
 - Evaluated and consulted with chain of command on request from outside the system on operational and security viability of communication network features.
 - Recommended for the Army Achievement Medal upon separation from the Unit for Exemplary Peace time service. Most notably for simulating killing my First Sargent and blowing up his personal carrier after failure to give appropriate access response and holding off an Oppositional force later that evening of 10 men at my guard point.
 - • Camp Casey Korea
 - As Switch operator of the Master Switch and Senior Switch operator Coordinated my Switch team and the rest of the Second Infantry Division switch teams in support of Division operations
 - As senior Junior Enlisted man trained and cross-trained team members in task needed on signal sights and in understanding our wartime mission.
 - Served as one of the NCOIC's of the network and Sight Commander over Christmas and Thanksgiving holiday
 - Served at the request of the Chaplin as Sunday school teacher and assistant minister
-

.SKILLS

- Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) and Apple iWork (Keynote)
- Pilot of Small Unmanned Aircraft Sense 1999
- FAA Certified Professional Remote Pilot
- Carries up to $2,000,000 in Liability and personal injury for all professional Flights $2,500,000 for training operations

EDUCATION

Full Sail University (Winter Park, FL) Master of Science in Entertainment Business	October 20
Utah Valley University (Provo, UT) Bachelor of Science in Theatre Arts, Major: Stage Management Associate of Science in Theatre Arts, Major: Acting	December 2009
Federal Aciation Adminstration Safety team (US Government) Civil Unmanned Aerial Systems Course	August 2016

Memberships

Academy of Modal Aeronautics	October 2012-present
Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (Plus Membership)	October 2016-present